Anti-Terrorism Tackled in Panama

Panama, Apr 4 (Prensa Latina) A Ministerial Conference on International Cooperation against Terrorism and Organized Crime is opening in Panama Tuesday and will run till Friday 7.

The objective of the meeting is to bring strategies for the international anti-terrorist crusade up to date in Central American countries, including Colombia, Mexico, the Dominican Republic and Panama, an official source said.

The opening speech of the meeting is expected to be delivered by First Vice President and Foreign Minister of Panama Samuel Lewis.

According to Analysis of Terrorist Actions and Related Issues of the Foreign Ministry of Panama director, Hady Gonzalez, the host delegation is to be led by former president, current Ambassador to the Organization of American States Aristides Royo.

The meeting will be held at the Caesar Park Hotel under the joint sponsorship of the UN Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC), the OAS Inter-American Committee against Terrorism (OEA-CICTE) and the Panamanian Government.
